2 BIRTHDAYS & A 2ND NEW YEAR

Our baby Mollie turned one on January 29th. If you have kids... I don't need to tell you how surprising it is that the time passes so quickly. She has 2 teeth on top and 2 on the bottom... and she eats great. She ate 4 potstickers the other day... same as Bethanie and Zachary ate! She likes books, balls & babies. She doesn't like sleeping all night.

On January 1st, we all rejoiced with the David & Fannie Xie as their children, Bunny and Hong Yuan, were baptized into Christ! (See <http://pagels.teamexpansion.org/blog/2006/01/joyful-day-for-xie-family.html> for more information and a picture!) That was a great way to start the New Year... but there was more rejoicing to come in the Xie family. On the first day of the Lunar New Year, David's sister-in-law, Yu Hua, also joined the Family of God! David later shared that she had observed their family since they came to Christ a few years ago and when nothing bad happened to the family as a result of their decision... she saw that it might be possible for her to believe in Christ as well. We enjoyed celebrating together as these 2 New Year's Days also became "birthdays" for new believers!

Each year... we have the great blessing of joining the Bai family for dinner on Chinese New Year's Eve. This is the most important holiday here and most people primarily see it as a time of vacation from work and the chance to be with family and set off fireworks at all hours of the day and night! Christine is a fantastic cook and we always enjoy visiting their home for the meal, karaoke, and the drinking of MUCH tea! Over the holiday, we also had the opportunity to go out to dinner with the FanJiang family. Arthur is the "instigator" of Scott's Bible study in Linkou and he treated us to a great dinner with his parents at Din Tai Fung, his mom's fave!

STATE OF THE MISSION ADDRESS

As I write this... I can't help but see all of the data both above and to the right of this box. Although some might see only letters and numbers... we see more. We see Bible studies... Taiwanese church leaders... happy and healthy (and well educated!) missionary kids... God's faithfulness... God's family... partners and partnership... sacrifices... "sowing in tears"... "reaping in joy"... baptisms... singing and dancing... lifted hands... praying people... training... laughter... conviction... persecution... perseverance... preaching... teaching... trials... testing...

The mission is doing well in all the things that matter most. Because of God's faithfulness and his leading of his people... we always have everything we need. We are the most blessed missionaries that I know of or have even heard of. For such a short list of churches and individuals to provide such a large amount of money to such ordinary people is a testimony of God's power.

As you can see above, we used $3847.11 from our personal account to cover ministry needs in 2005. We believe that everything we have—from our children to our "stuff" to our "personal" money—all belongs to God. However, that account is now very low and we cannot continue to donate to ourselves as we have done this past year. Both Team Expansion and many (most?) of you would prefer that we not spend our "personal funds" so we need to make this situation known to you.

Thank you for a great year of ministry in 2005!
