

New Format

I hope this new format works OK for everyone. I'm sorry we can't find a format we like and stick with it forever. Perhaps we've done that now! I'd like to just have one report that includes some news and a financial report. If I include the financial report, I find that I'm short on space to share all the news... but sometimes leaving the financial report out means that I have too much space to fill and the newsletter is stuffed with "filler" or isn't published in a timely manner. I've decided to put the news on the front and the financial report on the back. Occasionally this will leave me less space for news than I'd like, but I should remind everyone that these reports are only one of the ways to keep up-to-date about what's happening with our family and ministry in Taiwan. Here are a few other ways to stay in touch...

- Scott, Angie, and Bethanie are all on Facebook
- Scott is on Twitter at: <http://twitter.com/sqjtaipei>
- We have an email prayer update through Yahoo! Groups. To subscribe, send a blank email to: pagelsintaiwan-subscribe@yahoogroups.com
- Last month, Scott started blogging again at <http://scottpagel.com>
- And as always, feel free to contact us via email.

And Now... The News!

Miss Qiu is still living with us and making herself at home. We don't know when her adoption will be fully processed, but we've heard it may be late May or June. We aren't in a hurry to see her go, but want her "forever family" to get their hands on this bundle of cuteness!

We ended another session of soccer and had a huge barbecue at our outreach center. The place was filled with people... but also with SMOKE! We were grilling under an awning because of some light rain and didn't notice that the smoke was getting stuck under the awning and just pouring into the building. Everything was fine and everyone's eyes are all clear now.

Our kids joined in the Bethany School field day and took home some ribbons for their speed and skill. Zach and Josh joined the "Physics Olympics" and Zach's ping-pong ball catapult took home the title.

Speaking of Bethany School. We would like to send Bethanie to school there next fall. If you would like to help with tuition, please let us know. Thanks!

A Note from Team Expansion's President—Doug Lucas

Perhaps you've seen these notes in multiple Team Expansioners' newsletters.

You might have wondered why we include it each month. The truth is -- we're a team! ... a global team. This enables us to reduce duplication, avoid "re-inventing the wheel," and share common resources and tools. In turn, this enables us to save valuable time, resources, and money -- which, for you and your local church, means better stewardship and more effective Kingdom outreach. At the same time, our workers around the world have a ton of flexibility. Nobody micro-manages; nobody hands out arbitrary orders from some armchair in a faraway land. Teams function according to time-tested principles of strategy, accountability, and teamwork, but on a day-to-day basis, God is the one honored as Chief Executive. It's a great system... and it's all possible because of you and others like you who empower Team Expansion with your prayers, gifts, and encouragement. So thank you for being a "force multiplier" for Team Expansion... and thank you for helping your favorite Team Expansion missionary change the world!
