

Christmas & New Year Blessings

Our family's greatest blessings are the love and mercy of our God. He shows these attributes in many ways, but one of those is that we have the greatest partners in this ministry... YOU! 2011 will bring new challenges, but we will also mark new milestones and make new inroads in our work to spark a Church Planting Movement in Taiwan. Fortunately, we are not alone in our endeavors. 2011 will mark our 12th year in Taiwan and in all of that time, we have simply made faithful Christians aware of the spiritual need here and you have responded with prayer and offerings that allow us to remain in Taiwan and experience the harvest. Due in large part to our new strategic plan, we have every reason to believe that 2011 will be the most significant year to date regarding the groundwork for a Church Planting Movement. We look forward to watching it unfold and sharing the victories and challenges with you throughout the year.

Thank you for your constant and faithful support of our family and our life and ministry in Taiwan. There are communities of believers in places where there once were not because of your partnership in the gospel and God's great love for people.

A Note from Team Expansion's President—Doug Lucas

Dear friend of the Great Commission,

I have a confession: I love Christmas. Maybe it's all the great memories growing up on a snowy farm in southern Indiana. We had it all... sledding, ice-skating, Christmas lights, and even caroling. Some might call it an "Old-fashioned Christmas," but I just prefer to think of it as a traditional one. You know, this morning I noticed in the newspaper that many churches in Iraq were closing their doors this Christmas. Turns out there are too many threats from Islamic extremists. Ouch. Imagine if you and your church had to "cancel Christmas" in your town. For this reason and many others, I'm extremely thankful for the prayers and support you share with your favorite Team Expansion missionaries. You see, although they have no political or military ambitions, they are trying to share the real reason for this season. In this way, it's like they're trying to bring a truly traditional Christmas (the one with Jesus at the center) to their new adopted homeland and people. I can't think of a more important purpose in the world. So thanks and, from all of us at Team Expansion to you and all yours, may God bless you this Christmas and throughout 2011!!
