

"Aunt Angie's" Bible Club

Another session has come to an end and now we are fortunate to see some fruit. One of the students and her grandma have been joining us for worship on Sunday mornings. Another student's mom sought us and Daphne (our class translator from church) for prayer about a situation with her younger brother a few weeks ago. Yet another brought us back some special food after Chinese New Year and told about her adult special needs brother who lives in a nursing home and was delighted to find out that we hope to visit him soon. These last two families joined the English class last semester at both locations though we told them it would be pretty much identical at both places. We are so thankful for these outside-of-class opportunities to get to know each of these families better and lead them closer to our Lord. Please pray with us for these kids and their families: Tiffany and her grandma Huang Li, Belle, and Gina, respectively.

Welcoming the "Year of the Rabbit"

We enjoy participating in local holidays with our friends and Chinese New Year is the biggest of them all. People typically get at least a week off of work and the roads are jammed with travelers. Our first Chinese New Year in Taiwan was in the year 2000 and our friends John and Christine invited us to celebrate New Year's Eve with them and we have done so every year since that we've been in Taiwan and tried to call during dinner from the USA when we've been away. Christine outdoes herself (with food preparation and presentation) with each passing year and more people have joined the celebration over the years. This year, we weren't able to stay until midnight as we've become accustomed due to some sickness going around our family, but we were thankful to be able to meet with our friends and "Taiwan family" for this holiday. John and Christine have 2 sons living with them, Joseph and Peter. This year is a special year for Joseph as he is engaged to a lovely girl whose English name is Sunny. Her name matches her personality and smile! God's blessings to them!

Mollie is 6!

Our baby celebrated a birthday in January and lost her first tooth not long after. She must have forgotten the deal she made with her daddy when she turned 5... that she would stop growing up and stay little forever! Actually, we love to see our kids growing up and making waves!

Yes, she's sitting on the table in the picture!

A Note from Team Expansion's President—Doug Lucas

Dear Partner of the Great Commission,

In Ephesians 2:10, Paul writes, "For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do." I love this verse, especially because of the beautiful word picture it creates in the original language of the New Testament (Greek). The root word for the term that is translated "handiwork" or, in some versions, "workmanship," is actually the same root from which we get our English word, "poetry." Interestingly, Paul's point is that God has created acts of service for us to fulfill. When we do them, we become living poetry, made alive through the Spirit so that all can see the mighty hand of God at work in their midst. So when your favorite Team Expansion missionary carries out his or her ministry in the field, that's poetry in motion. And when you, as an undergirding, make that work possible, that's more poetry for the whole world to enjoy. For this reason, on behalf of unreached people who still need to hear the gospel, I'd like to say thanks! Thanks for making something spiritually beautiful out of what might have otherwise just been plain old cold cash. God be praised for your service!
