

Beautiful Island...

In February we finally had the chance to do something we've wanted to do for many years... head 2 hours south to the lush strawberry fields of Dahu in Miaoli County and pick some delicious fruit! Taiwan is a beautiful land. When the Portuguese sailed past in the 16th century, they called it Ilha Formosa, meaning "beautiful island". Although I also find the cities beautiful in a different way, it is when you leave the concrete and steel behind that you get a sense of the majesty of Taiwan's interesting geography.

Dahu is famous in Taiwan for its strawberries and the valleys are full of seemingly endless rows of delicious fruit. This year, our winter was cooler and longer than usual and this helped produce a longer prime growing season. It was fun for our whole family to pick our own strawberries. Actually, we learned that it is best to not "pick" them, but to use scissors to "snip" the fruits off of the plant in order to reduce likelihood of damaging the plant itself. We also discovered it is very easy to fill up more baskets than you originally planned to pick! We enjoyed sharing with friends back in Taipei, though. Angie's shortbread and smoothies were exceptional!

More Beautiful People

One very special thing about our trip to Dahu was that we went with our good Taiwanese friends, Joe and Daphne and their two kids. We all rode together and enjoyed a fun day together, not only picking strawberries, but tromping around Shei-pai National Park visitor's center and eating Hakka rice noodles, too. Joe and Daphne have caught the vision of planting simple, reproducible churches and are eager to share this vision with others.

Along with our co-workers, the Edwards and Peter Bennett, we've met with Joe and Daphne and David and Fannie (from Yonghe) to talk about church planting and work on a strategic plan which we all hope will lead to a church planting movement in Taipei and beyond. It is vital that Taiwanese contribute significantly to this plan and our beautiful brothers and sisters here are definitely up to the task. Please join us in prayer that the Spirit will be at work in this.

A Note from Team Expansion's President—Doug Lucas

Dear "Fellow-worker,"

That phrase, "fellow-worker" is a special phrase in the New Testament. It is used in several passages and it always speaks toward the concept that those who support a missionary are equally involved in the mission. Take III John for instance. The word translated "fellow-worker" (one who "shows hospitality", III John 8) there in several translations is a term that can mean give food, offer housing, give money, and even "accompany" (as in, accompany the person to the next town). By becoming involved in this way with the traveler, John says we "work together for the truth" (also vs. 8).

So when you help your favorite Team Expansion missionary "on a journey for His name's sake," you're doing a lot more than a "good turn." You're actually participating in the work -- in a very real way. For that, we are all very grateful -- the organization, the worker, and the people being reached! Thank you!!!
