

What a Kid! What a Day!

On June 17, Joshua turned 9 and we celebrated in part with Scott taking Zach and Josh and Josh's friend, Marcus, to a local water park for the day. We arrived when the park opened and we were almost the last ones to leave!

Joshua's swimming has improved to where he can now access all the attractions at the park and he bravely took on every slide and they were tall and fast. He's reading like a champ and loves soccer and basketball in addition to swimming. He also enjoys Star Wars as much as always. We are so proud of Joshua and all he is and is becoming.

Moves

At the end of June, our merry band of missionaries in Taiwan saw the departure of the Craig and Karen Thompson family. They will be missed because 1) they are awesome, and 2) they've been passionate about simple churches and transforming communities since their arrival and this is the foundation of what we do as Team Expansion missionaries. Their 4 sons are stellar and their daughter, Emma, has been one corner of a trio of MKs including Caitlyn Edwards and our Bethanie. We wish them all of the best and know God will continue to use their considerable skills in building his church... but this is one of the tough times, friends.

A Note from Team Expansion's President—Doug Lucas

Dear friend of the Great Commission,

I'm sure that somewhere in the world, there is a big non-profit organization with hourly employees who open the mail with very little thought as to individual donors. With near robotic detachment, they enter gift amounts and prepare reports for higher-ups who have no relationship with those writing the checks.

 Team Expansion is not that organization. *****

As a Team Expansion missionary myself for 33 years now, I can testify that whenever we receive a gift of any amount, it's like Christmas all over again. My mind recounts, "Someone cared enough to sponsor our work!" or "Someone sacrificed for Jesus so that others can know His love." "Someone gave up coffee (or a new boat), and I won't forget it." Your favorite Team Expansion missionary is exactly the same. How do I know? Because I talk with them every day. Like Paul, they "give praise to God at every memory of you," (Philippians 1:3, Bible in Basic English). So next time you send a gift, please realize -- the person opening that envelope knows you, thanks God for you, and praises God because of you.

With a grateful heart, Doug Lucas
