

And Now... the News

- The latest edition of what has become known as "Aunt Angie's" English Class is well underway. Beginning on Oct 19, it will run to Christmas. Thanks to generous donations from supporters (THANK YOU!), we are able to use a great deal of Group's 2011 VBS 'PandaMania' materials for this class. Angie is the star, but it is a full-family effort with each person pitching in to help in various ways. Daphne (from church) comes to help each week and we've enjoyed meeting many parents again. We hope some of these parents might join in other church activities.
- Angie took a well-deserved retreat with the ladies of TMF in early October.
- The "13 Lessons in Christian Doctrine" class is going really well.
- The latest (and perhaps last because people are moving away) Fall Dress-Up Bash was held in October with fun, friends, and food for all.
- October 30 the Ankeng church met at a coffee house up in the mountains! Several people who don't attend other church activities came joined this outing.
- Trip to southern Taiwan to attend the wedding and banquet of one of our longest Taiwanese friends, Jason Yeh. He was a classmate of ours (with Kungyi) from Northeast Missouri State (now Truman State).

Upcoming

- I Am a Hero Games—tentatively in December at our local elementary school.
- Scott plans to attend the Team Leaders' Summit in Louisville and the National Missionary Convention in Atlanta later this month.
- Thanksgiving with fellow missionaries at The Home of God's Love

Meet Daisy

Many of you know Daisy through Facebook, but I can't find where we've told you about Daisy in the newsletter yet. Here she is... studying the Bible like a good Missionary Dog. :-). Born in June, she came to live with us in August. She's a Boston Terrier and is already a great help in reminding us all to put our shoes in the cabinet and then close the cabinet door! It seems that she'll be great for apartment living in the city.

A Note from Team Expansion's President—Doug Lucas

Dear partner in the Task,

I just returned from a field visit to Ukraine where, in 1991, our workers began from scratch learning language, sharing Christ, and baptizing those who believed in Him. Soon there were 15 believers, then 30, then 60, then 120 and, before we knew it, there were 1000 believers joining together in white-hot worship, sharing their faith both at home and abroad. Within 6 years, each Team Expansion USA-sent worker was able to withdraw, leaving behind a stable church with its own staff and even a Bible college that trains preachers and missionaries. So, if there are no Team Expansion workers remaining there, why did I go? Because last weekend, the church celebrated its 20th birthday. They gave thanks for people like you, who sponsored the work of servants like your favorite Team Expansion missionary. 2 Cor 9:13 came alive right before our very eyes! "Because of the service by which you have proved yourselves, others will praise God for the obedience that accompanies your confession of the gospel of Christ, and for your generosity in sharing with them and with everyone else."

Thankful for your partnership, Doug Lucas—President, Team Expansion
