

Leaving Home and Heading Home

For our family, as home service time draws to an end, we feel as if we are both leaving home and heading home. Thanks to everyone who has made us feel so welcome while back in the USA. We've had an overwhelming positive response to our move to Taichung and new aspect to our church planting work. Thank you for your questions, concerns, advice, encouragement, and giddiness as we've shared how we think God is leading our family. We have the best group of supporters ever.

But as we leave the USA to return to Taiwan. We are going home. After 13 years, it is familiar and comfortable to us.

This time we will return to a new city. Taichung, Taiwan. We will, no doubt, miss Taipei for many reasons. Mostly because it is awesome. Of all the places I could live, I'd choose Taipei or Bellevue, NE. How's that for a contrast? But Taichung seems like a great place although the best thing about it right now is that it is where the Lord has led us. That's enough for us. We are headed home.

Here's our new address and phone number. I've updated the sidebar of the report with it so it will be there if you need it.

We haven't had room to post a picture of our moving day. In Taichung, our belongings were moved into the new house via crane. The picture on the right is Zach riding in the basket all the way up over power lines and back down to a 3rd floor window. Angie and Bethanie also made the trip! The movers were real pros.

We still have much to do here in the USA. We'll make a 2nd visit to see my grandpa in Iowa. My grandma's health has been failing and she is in a home in Bellevue. We'll be saying good-bye to them in these next few days. We'll be hugging family and enjoying the days.

We've had a great trip home... but now it is almost time to go home! It sounds as strange as it feels. Thanks for your support and encouragement. Blessings to all.

A Note from Team Expansion's President

Dear Partners,

I've just returned from a trip to Japan to help lead prayer walks in various locations around the country. In addition, I was humbled by the opportunity to mentor some of our newest workers while encouraging some of our seasoned veterans there in 3 different locations. One team is working hard in the city of Ishinomaki, which was heavily impacted by the tsunami of March 11, 2011. You would have been so proud of all of them. While everyone else was fleeing the disaster, they were seeking it out, driving toward it. They were among the first to arrive. Immediately, they developed innovative and effective methods of transporting life-sustaining supplies to those who needed them most. As soon as the situation allowed, they moved their families directly into some of the hardest-hit areas so they could work shoulder-to-shoulder with local people to rebuild homes, lives, and futures, and just BE with the people, life on life. They're still there today.

There's something about Team Expansion culture, the world over. They aren't afraid of work. They invest their entire lives into the local people. They stretch every dollar to maximum impact with maximum love. Your favorite missionary is cut from the same mold. Please join me today in giving thanks for hard workers... and thank you for helping make possible their labor! God bless you this month!
