

Generations

Since the last monthly report, we've lost both of my (Scott's) remaining grandparents.

It is hard to be away because we would like to think that we could be of comfort and assistance to family back home. Being the first-born also seems to pull my heart and my guilt in that direction. The silver lining is that we (our Taiwan family of 6) knew that the good-byes we had with Pa and GG back in July were almost certainly final good-byes. I hope it is OK if I pay my respects here in this space.

Harold Pagel (November 6, 1915 - August 13, 2012)

In 1999 when we left for Taiwan, we said goodbye to him and he said "this is probably the last time I'll see you". He said the same thing when we visited him in 2001, 2004, 2006, and in 2009! We saw him 3 weeks ago before we came back to Taiwan. He couldn't speak well due to a stroke back in February. We knew that would be the last time to see him and parted well. Thankful for a final game of cribbage with him and my two oldest kids.

He was kind. (from my Facebook)

Mildred Berringer Greenlee (October 25, 1916 - September 12, 2012)

As I was headed to bed tonight, I received word that my maternal grandmother passed away a couple of hours ago. Hard to be far away but thankful for a brother and sister who bear more than their share due to my absence. We treasure the time we spent with GG this past summer.

Perhaps Mildred Greenlee dances with Charles today after 15 years apart? Along with the intense sadness I feel right now... Happy memories and hopeful promises stand out in my mind. (from my Facebook)

Neighbors

Just a little space left to give a few names of neighbors. Will you pray? Perhaps one or more of these is a person of peace which God will use to build his church?

Jojo and her daughters Sangel and Sherry, A-Miao, 2 Lin families, Stella, Sue, Sylvia

A Note from Team Expansion's President

Dear Friends of Team Expansion,

A couple of months ago, I wrote about Team Expansion's team in Osaka, Japan. Ever since the tsunami there in March, 2011, they've been caring for the people in northeastern Japan in the aftermath of one of the greatest catastrophes in recorded history. Perhaps your favorite Team Expansion missionary doesn't work in or near Japan. It doesn't matter. You can still be glad that, directly or indirectly, you are a part of a global team of people who made a difference. After a recent visit to the field, we worked together with the team members there to create and submit a grant request in support of a vision to bring long-lasting help and hope to a couple of affected communities. The good news this month is that IDES, the foundation to which we sent the request, said yes! Our team members working in the region now have an extra $175,625 to apply toward the cause. Thanks God. And thank you for being a part of a global organization focused on launching church planting movements among unreached peoples -- and helping those who are hurting.

Doug Lucas, President--Team Expansion
