

In Which Zumba Proves Beneficial

Angie is having great success getting to know our neighbors as Scott and kids are at school. She recently went with JoJo, her husband, and another neighbor into the mountains to see the beautiful plum blossoms. Angie was in a Zumba class with JoJo last fall and another lady from the class, Emelia, joined them in the mountains. We love meeting new people, it just takes time to have the depth of relationships we had in Taipei and that can be frustrating sometimes!

In mid-January, we met for church in our home with another family. The mother is a teacher at Morrison and she's Taiwanese. Her husband is American and he and their kids can speak Chinese too, so as we invite neighbors it shouldn't be too difficult to transition to a Chinese/bilingual meeting. Our family room is separated from the dining room by a staircase in our new place, so the meeting place is much smaller than we've had in the past. It seemed larger before we moved our furniture in there! As we add more people it could get crowded quickly.

In January, a dear sister from the Ankeng church came to visit. It was a joy to hear how God is working in her life. Next month more friends plan to visit during the Chinese New Year break. It is nice to be able to build new friendships in Taichung while enjoying the company of deep friendships from our time in Taipei. We recently saw some pictures from longtime missionaries to Taiwan with Taiwanese friends they've known for over 40 years. Perhaps the Lord will allow us to see the fruit of such friendships in time.

Your faithful support makes it possible for our family to be here and engage with neighbors in such natural and fruitful ways. We are amazed by your generosity and thankful for your encouragement. You are the greatest supporters!

A Note from Team Expansion's President

Dear Partner in the Great Commission,

Last week, the point person at JoshuaProject.net was interacting with several of our workers (to launch a section about the Wall of Unreached Peoples on their website). Afterward, he wrote me this note:

When you recruit Team Expansion staff is there some kind of encouragement quotient they have to meet? Every single person I have had contact with in Team Expansion have been such encouraging folks. They all peg the encouragement meter! You have a marvelous staff, Doug. I think you ought to rename the organization to "Team Encouragement."

I second the impression. Team Expansion personnel ARE encouragers! That's one of the reasons it's so fun to work for this team of people -- and I trust it's also one of the reasons you support and pray for the work of your favorite Team Expansion missionary. And when you do, you're "passing along" the magic of encouragement. May God bless you for continuing the cycle! And may He richly bless you this month!

Doug Lucas, President-Team Expansion
