

In Which A Few Words Inspire Us

Angie just returned from a great weekend in Taipei. Our whole family was planning to go up for Zach's basketball tournament and then stay with our friends, Joe and Daphne. Bethanie was taking the SAT and Mollie was sick, I (Scott) ended up staying to take care of kids and Angie was the only one who watched Zach's tournament. His team didn't do well in the tournament, but he personally played his best and Angie enjoyed watching. Zach rode the bus back with his team, but Angie stayed in Taipei to join the simple church meeting at Joe and Daphne's house which is absolutely thriving. Angie enjoyed seeing how well they are carrying on with virtually no missionary involvement. It was a packed house with two other families from the former church meeting at Ankeng, 3 wonderful sisters (one with a family) from the former church meeting at Yung Ho and several people that were new to us that have been gathering with them all regularly, thirsty for the gospel. Awesome! When Joe saw how thrilled Angie was to see all that was going on without us, he said:

"We are only doing what you and Scott taught us to do."

Blessed supporters! This has been our dream as we've shared in the past: Model—Assist—Watch—Leave. And thanks be to God we are seeing success.

Angie stayed overnight and on Sunday morning went to witness the baptisms of 2 precious souls that both the Thompson family and Jennifer Reynolds have invested in for roughly 8 years each. Praise the Lord! What an amazing weekend.

Last week we enjoyed a visit from our Team Expansion, Asia Field Coordinators, Dana and Chris McCain. They were very encouraging about Scott's work at the school and the efforts I'm making to get involved with those in our community. Pray for them as they head home to the States soon after nearly 3 months traveling around Asia encouraging, guiding, and supporting many missionaries.

A Note from Team Expansion's President

Dear Fellow-helpers,

A field worker recently confessed to me that the main reason she was drawn to apply as a missionary with Team Expansion was because several of our team members wrote her on a regular basis over the course of a year, gently encouraging her toward missions and praying for her along the way. If only we knew the impact of the words we utter daily, both in spoken as well as in written form. In like manner, if we could only see with our very eyes those who are becoming discouraged or disenchanted, and, as a result, deciding not to apply for or not to continue their work in cross-cultural evangelism and discipleship. A long time ago, I made up my mind that, God willing, I would always stop and pray any time the thought of a prayer need even blipped across the radar in my mind. But we become so busy with the hustle and bustle of daily living. And there are so many distractions, some of which are helpful -- and others, not so much. Today, I'm thankful for any of the moments you have given to write, pray for, and encourage your favorite Team Expansion worker. Someday, he or she will probably share a testimony with me about the difference you've made. But in the meantime, may God bless you directly for your ministry on behalf of unreached peoples. Team Expansion is able to move forward with momentum because of the way God is at work in your life, empowering and undergirding the Team Expansion family that you know. May God bless you.

Doug Lucas, President—Team Expansion
