

In Which Kids Come to Christ and Go to School

We have wonderful news to share! Our son, Joshua, was baptized into Christ last month! We gathered at the Morrison Academy pool with co-workers and friends to witness his confession that Jesus is Lord. We have no greater joy than this—to know that another of our children has chosen Christ!

School just started at Morrison Academy which means we now have a 12th grader, a 9th grader, a 6th grader, and a 3rd grader. I (Scott) have begun my 2nd year in the library and have been busy with my master's degree for almost a year. I am currently finishing up an intensive course that I had to attend during the Sports and English Camp and the TMF conference. Yeah... busy and maybe slightly crazy! We are more grateful than ever for the regular support that makes our ongoing work possible during a time of transition.

Speaking of camp... Sports and English Camp was wonderful. Despite being delayed by a typhoon, both groups from the States were here by the time camp started. There were several changes in format made this year to intentionally teach the campers how they can continue meeting, learning and worshiping together even when camp is over and when no adults are around to help. At the end of the week 60 students committed to try to start a small group, called a Transform group, in their school or neighborhood. There were 2 baptisms at the camp along with several others who hope to be baptized in time, but couldn't get their parents' consent during camp. Praise God for His work in these young lives.

Our new friend from Pitt State, Amy, has continued to join us for church and plans to begin studying the Bible with Angie soon.

A Note from Team Expansion's President
Dear Friend of the Great Commission,
Last month, we listed the first 3 of our 7 Core Values. This month, we'll finish the list. You'll recall that we embrace these values not only because we believe in them, but also because they help us serve more effectively in unity:

- 4) Teams - Hey, it's our name. Jesus started it (sending the disciples out two by two). We still believe it's the best way.
- 5) Accountability - Paul reported back to Antioch. We report back to all supporters monthly about goals, time, and money.
- 6) Coaching - We're like a sports team that believes we'll do better if someone holds our feet to the fire and constantly helps us improve, so we seek coaching, and seek to be coached.
- 7) Church-planting - Unless our work replicates the body of Christ, we believe we've fallen short.

Thanks for partnering with us in these passions!!
Doug Lucas, President—Team Expansion
